Cleveland state university's compliance with the "8 Principles of Excellence," established by Executive Order 13607 of April 27, 2012 is as follows:

- (A) Cleveland state university shall provide veterans and service members with information detailing the total cost of their education including tuition and fees, how much shall be covered particular program and VSSP thus ensuring it is accurate and meets 1414) and to their instructors. The office of the university registrar shall provide copies of the orders to the office of treasury services and financial aid office. All questions about financial aid implications can be directed to the veterans certifying officer at (216) 683-26.

(F) Cleveland state university has an institutional refund policy aligned with Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965. This is concerned with refunds for reasons other than withdrawals for military service. When veterans and service members withdraw from a course the refund awarded shall be guided by the university policy for student refunds in general (available publically at <http://www.csuohio.edu/offices/treasuryservices/refunds/#schedules>):

(1) Effective with the introduction of multi-term registration and wait listing, beginning with the fall 2012 semester, a one hundred per cent refund shall be granted only through the first week of class for regular fall and spring semesters. Refunds for dropped or withdrawn classes during week two shall be prorated at seventy-five per cent. Refunds during week three are prorated at fifty per cent and during week four are prorated at twenty-five per cent. Exceptions to this published refund policy shall not be considered.

(2) Students who withdraw from a class after the official refund period is concluded are not eligible for a refund.

(3) The official date of withdrawal is the date the course change is presented to the registrar's office, not the date the
